

(e) Final Score

(1) The final score for the Miss Washington Job's Daughter competition will be as follows: There are five parts to the competition. The contestant with the highest number of total points from the following competitions will be Miss Washington Job's Daughter.

- a. Final Written Test – twenty two point five percent (22.5%)
- b. Personal Interview – twenty two point five percent (22.5%)
- c. Oral Ritual Competition – twenty two point five percent (22.5%)
- d. Stage Appearance/Evening Interview with the Master/Mistress of Ceremonies – twenty two point five percent (22.5%)
- e. The Final Question – ten percent (10%)

The score from the preliminary written test will be used if there is a tie for Miss Washington Job's Daughter. (2007)

Section 4. Disbursements.

(a) Miss Washington Job's Daughter shall receive a maximum seven hundred and fifty dollar ($750.00) scholarship. The first runner-up shall receive a maximum five hundred dollar ($500.00) scholarship. The participant with the highest dollar volume of program ad donations shall receive a maximum five hundred dollar ($500.00) scholarship. The participant with the highest score on the final written test shall receive a maximum two hundred and fifty dollar ($250.00) scholarship. If additional monies are available, additional scholarships may be presented with the approval of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee and Finance Committee. (2006)

(b) Applications for redemption of scholarships shall be received by the Pageant Committee no later than four (4) years from the date of award. Applicants shall provide proof of enrollment in a college or vocational course. (1996)

(c) Mileage shall be paid to Miss Washington Job's Daughter when attending Bethel Grand Visitations and authorized events as scheduled by the MWJD Director of Events and approved by the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee Chairman. Mileage shall be reimbursed at a rate of fifteen cents ($.15) per mile or the current IRS Standard Mileage Rate for miles driven in service of charitable organizations, whichever is greater. (2008)

ARTICLE VII REPRESENTATION

Section 1.

(a) Miss Washington Job's Daughter represents Job's Daughters as directed by the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee or the Grand Guardian. She shall make the Promotion of our Order her priority. (2003)

(b) Miss Washington Job's Daughter may attend Official Visits of the Grand Guardian and the Associate Grand Guardian, if her schedule permits and no public speaking engagements conflict. (1996)

(c) Miss Washington Job's Daughter shall submit a written report of her activities during the year. Her report shall be given at the Annual Session of the Grand Guardian Council and shall be included in the annual proceedings. Her report shall be reviewed by the chairman or designated member of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee prior to its presentation at the Annual Session. (2003)

(d) The first runner-up will represent Miss Washington Job's Daughter if she is unavailable or out of the jurisdiction, and at the request of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee or the Grand Guardian. (2006)