State Ritual Team Tryouts

This competition is for Daughters who are planning to attend Supreme Session and want to be a member of the Washington State Ritual Team. We are looking for the five daughters who demonstrate the best ritual work to represent Washington State in this prestigious competition.

Rules and Guidelines

- Entries must be received online by Wednesday, March 31. No late entries will be accepted.
- All Active members of Job's Daughters International are eligible to compete for a place on the team. You must be fifteen years old and not have attained majority on the day of competition at Supreme Session.
- Each Daughter selected for the State Ritual Team will be responsible for her own Supreme Session expenses, transportation and chaperone.
- Any number of Daughters from each Bethel can enter the competition.
- Entrants will memorize 3rd Messenger and 5th Messenger initiation parts. We will choose one of these two parts for you to perform at the time of your tryout. You must perform the selected initiation part, including any directions to the Guide and Marshal.
- Entrants will compete wearing the Official Regalia of the Order, as prescribed in the Supreme Bylaws for Bethels (SOB Bethel 11 Section 1 a & b) No capes or crowns will be worn. Robes will be briefly reviewed virtually.
- No rituals other than those used by the judges, will be allowed in the room.
- Observers are not permitted in the room during the competition, in accordance with the Supreme Guidelines. We will ask you to show us a 360 of your room to ensure that no one is present and your ritual is closed.
- If a Daughter needs a prompt, one word will be given and one point will be deducted for each word provided to the entrant.

Please use the attached score sheets to understand the criteria for judging. A perfect score is 350 points.

Washington State Ritual Team Agreement

If I am selected as a member of the Washington State Ritual Team I...

- Confirm that I'm at least fifteen (15) years old and will not have attained majority by the competition day at Supreme Session.
- Will be present and on time to scheduled practices and events
- Will come prepared with necessary supplies, clothing, and assigned ritual work to practices and events
- Will be an active participant at every group activity and fundraiser
- Will heed the advice and guidance of my coaches
- Will be a positive TEAM player
- Will work hard, have fun, and have a good attitude
- Understand that any Supreme Session costs not covered by fundraising is entirely the responsibility of the Daughter and her parents
- Understand that **failure to follow the above code of conduct may result in being replaced with an alternate for the Supreme Session competition, even if a portion of my Supreme Session costs have been paid for.

As a parent of a Washington State Ritual Team member I...

- Will ensure that my child is on time to scheduled practices
- Will ensure that my child is fed, rested, and ready to participate at scheduled activities
- Understand that any Supreme Session costs are solely the responsibility of the team members' family. My child may participate in fundraising to help offset the cost.
- Understand that my child's travel arrangements, chaperone, and room accommodations are our responsibility to be arranged and booked by Grand Session
- Understand that if I or my child violate the code of conduct, it **may result in my child being replaced with an alternate for the Supreme Session competition, even if a portion of the Supreme Session costs have been paid for.

**A member's removal or replacement from the team is at the sole discretion of the coaches. One warning will be given and the team member AND parent will be notified of the warning.
