

(e) Final Score

(1) The final score for the Miss Washington Job's Daughter competition will be as follows: There are five parts to the competition. The contestant with the highest number of total points from the following competitions will be Miss Washington Job's Daughter.

- a. Final Written Test – twenty two point five percent (22.5%)
- b. Personal Interview – twenty two point five percent (22.5%)
- c. Oral Ritual Competition – twenty two point five percent (22.5%)
- d. Stage Appearance/Evening Interview with the Master/Mistress of Ceremonies – twenty two point five percent (22.5%)
- e. The Final Question – ten percent (10%)

The score from the preliminary written test will be used if there is a tie for Miss Washington Job's Daughter. (2007)

Section 4. Disbursements.

(a) Miss Washington Job's Daughter shall receive a maximum seven hundred and fifty dollar ($750.00) scholarship. The first runner-up shall receive a maximum five hundred dollar ($500.00) scholarship. The participant with the highest dollar volume of program ad donations shall receive a maximum five hundred dollar ($500.00) scholarship. The participant with the highest score on the final written test shall receive a maximum two hundred and fifty dollar ($250.00) scholarship. If additional monies are available, additional scholarships may be presented with the approval of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee and Finance Committee. (2006)

(b) Applications for redemption of scholarships shall be received by the Pageant Committee no later than four (4) years from the date of award. Applicants shall provide proof of enrollment in a college or vocational course. (1996)

(c) Mileage shall be paid to the MWJD for attending one (1) Grand Visitation at each Washington Bethel per year and authorized events scheduled by the MWJD Director of Events. The GG must be notified in advance of the MWJD plan to attend said events. Prior approval must be made by the MWJD Committee Chairman. Mileage shall be reimbursed at the current IRS Standard Mileage Rate for miles driven in service of charitable organizations. (2021)

ARTICLE VII REPRESENTATION

Section 1.

(a) Miss Washington Job's Daughter represents Job's Daughters as directed by the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee or the Grand Guardian. She shall make the Promotion of our Order her priority. (2003)

(b) Miss Washington Job's Daughter may attend Official Visits of the Grand Guardian and the Associate Grand Guardian, if her schedule permits and no public speaking engagements conflict. (1996)

(c) Miss Washington Job's Daughter shall submit a written report of her activities during the year. Her report shall be given at the Annual Session of the Grand Guardian Council and shall be included in the annual proceedings. Her report shall be reviewed by the chairman or designated member of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee prior to its presentation at the Annual Session. (2003)

(d) The first runner-up will represent Miss Washington Job's Daughter if she is unavailable or out of the jurisdiction, and at the request of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Committee or the Grand Guardian. (2006)

ARTICLE VIII
PARTICIPATION IN INTERNATIONAL PAGEANT

Section 1.

(a) If Miss Washington Job's Daughter attends the Annual Session of the Supreme Guardian Council, she shall be the Washington State contestant in the Miss International Job's Daughter Pageant. If she is unable to attend, the first (1st) runner-up may participate in her place. If the first (1st) runner-up cannot attend, the selection may be made in succession from the runners-up.

(b) The Daughter representing Washington State in the Miss International Job's Daughter Pageant shall have her airfare paid at the lowest available rate to the Annual Session of the Supreme Guardian Council.

(c) The Daughter representing Washington State in the Miss International Job's Daughter Pageant shall also receive a per diem in the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00) per day for four (4) days plus her portion of the cost of a hotel room for four (4) nights. (2021)

ARTICLE IX SUCCESSION

Section 1.

(a) In the event that Miss Washington Job's Daughter cannot fulfill her term, the first (1st) runner-up will become Miss Washington Job's Daughter. If unable to accept, selection shall be made in succession from the runners-up.

(b) A Miss Washington Job's Daughter who marries while reigning shall immediately forfeit the title. (2006)

ARTICLE X
MISS WASHINGTON JOB'S DAUGHTER COMMITTEE

Section 1. Duties of the Committee

(a) Establish and implement regulations governing the selection of a Miss Washington Job's Daughter.

(b) Plan and supervise an annual Miss Washington Job's Daughter Pageant to be held at the Annual Grand Bethel Meeting. (2006)

(c) Notify each Bethel in February of the full particulars regarding the selection process and responsibilities of the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Program. (2003)

(d) Collect an entry fee from each contestant as set by the Miss Washington Job's Daughter Pageant Committee. (2021)

(e) May provide Pageant contestants with an appropriate charm. (2021)

(f) Provide a Miss Washington Job's Daughter a sash, flowers and other suitable awards and/or certificates. (2003)

(g) Provide a tiara which shall be the property of the GGC and which shall be used each year by the new Miss Washington Job's Daughter.

(h) Provide an official Miss Washington Job's Daughter jewel J-174 to the retiring Miss Washington Job's Daughter to be presented at the Pageant. (1998)

(i) One (1) member of the committee shall be appointed as Director of Events. It shall be his/her duty to solicit and schedule speaking engagements and/or appearances for Miss Washington Job's Daughter that shall promote the Order outside the general membership. (2002)